One-time Vancouverite Goldie Hawn joined a chichi crowd at Jacquie Cohen's waterfront residence recently for her 19th annual Face the World Foundation fundraising gala. Jacquie, the founder of the charity and CEO of Army & Navy Department Stores, welcomed the actress – whose own Hawn Foundation was born in Vancouver – and more than 200 other guests for an evening in support of “their [shared] love of kids and Vancouver.” In lieu of a silent auction, gala-goers raised their paddles to donate more than $800,000 cash to the cause. – NICOLE HARVIE IN VANCOUVER
